

- o Employee retention is a major issue in the foodservice/hospitality industry. Additionally, the industry is facing a major shortage of skilled workers. What actions would you take to ensure that your 400-seat casual/finedining restaurant does not fall victim to these trends?
- o What significant changes have occurred in the structure of the hotel industry in the last decade and why?
- o What are the factors an independent hotelier should take into consideration in deciding whether to brand a property?

Deadline for Submission: July 20, 2018

Criteria

Applications are to be judged on the following criteria. Points assigned to each of the criteria (from a total of 100 points) are as follows:

- x Work experience (20): based on quality and length of work experience with extra points for foodservice, hospitality, and culinary-related experience and for increased levels of responsibility
- x Scholarship record (20): based on grade point average
- x Leadership and ability to get along with others (25): based on work experience, letters of reference and responses to application questions.
- x Professional promise (25): based on work experience, letters of reference and responses to application questions
- x Discretionary points (10): given to the discretion of each judge and based amongst other things on quality of application (neatness, imagination and effort put into the presentation).

Payment of Scholarship Money

The scholarship money will be paid in its entirety in November of the year the scholarship is awarded. The Foundation will seek confirmation of full-time enrollment from the university before payment is made. Payment has been paid in full, the money will then be paid to the student by the university.

Website Posting of Recipients

The recipients list will be posted on the Foundation website www.thechef.ca/scholarships by October of the year the scholarship is awarded.
