

Student Misconduct Form

The Student Rights and Responsibilities Office (SRRO) encourages members of the College community to attempt to resolve personal conflicts where appropriate. This form is for any member of the College community to report non-academic incidents that may be a violation to Niagara College's Student Code of Conduct policy. Please review the Student Code of Conduct policy and procedure if you have any questions.

In the event of an emergency, please contact the police by dialing 911.
